Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 6		The organization has two membership classes which include honorary members and board of directors. Honorary memberships are granted on a year-to-year basis and attained by contributing one dollar or any multiple thereof. Honorary members do not have voting rights. Board of directors are elected to serve as the governing body of the organization.

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 7a		The County Commissioners or County Council of Cass, Fulton, Miami, and Pulaski each select one member to serve on the board of directors while the other members are elected by the existing members at the annual meeting of the organization. Vacancies can be filled by remaining directors or by the county Commissioners or county Council of the appropriate county.

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11		The process of reviewing the Form 990 entails a detailed review of the Form 990 by the organization's CEO and accounting personnel. The governing body reviews and approves the Form 990 and the final form, including requested schedules, as ultimately filed with the IRS, is provided to each voting member of the organization's governing body prior to filing.

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c		The written conflict of interest policy is regularly and consistently monitored and compliance is enforced by the board president. The scope of this policy includes all directors, officers, and associates. The policy is in place to assist Four County Counseling Center directors, officers, associates, and agents who govern and administer Four County Counseling Center affairs to resolve situations that involve a dual interest or that may be interpreted as a conflict of interest and to define conflict of interest situations and procedures to follow once they are disclosed. The covered persons are held to a strict rule of honest and fair dealing between themselves and the Organization. They shall not use their positions, or knowledge gained therefrom, in such a way that a conflict might arise between the interest in the Organization and that of the individual. A self-disclosure from covered persons to other board members is required on any potential conflicts of interest. Any director having a duality of interest or possible conflict of interest on any matter should not vote or use his or her personal influence on the matter, and he or she should not be counted in determining the quorum for the meeting, even where permitted by law. The minutes of the meeting should reflect a disclosure was made, the abstention from voting, and that a quorum was present.

Form 990 Schedule H, Part VI - Supplemental Information, Line 1

Part I, Line 3c The criteria that Four County uses to establish need for free or discounted care is based on annual family income and number of dependents. Patients whose household income falls below 100% of the Federal Poverty Level are eligible to receive a 100% discount on services. If the household income of a patient falls between 100% and 200% of the federal poverty line, with respect to the size of the family unit, the patient qualifies for a 60% discount on fees. This policy is in place to ensure that indigent clients are treated fairly and appropriately in the collection process with respect to their ability to pay.

Form 990 Schedule H, Part VI - Supplemental Information, Line 1

Part III, Line 4 Bad Debt Expense is calculated based on patient receivable accounts which are deemed uncollectible after every reasonable effort to collect the amounts due to the organization have been exercised with regard to charity care, the center does not pursue collections of amounts determined to qualify as charity care, so these amounts are not included in bad debt expense A cost to charge ratio was used to calculate estimated charity care at cost The cost to charge ratio is calculated based on the ratio of patient care cost to charges To determine the costs that are included in calculating the above amounts, a cost report is utilized which determines total program inpatient and outpatient costs, and total inpatient and outpatient medicare reimbursements received

Form 990 Schedule H, Part VI - Supplemental Information, Line 1

Part III, Line 8 The amount of medicare allowable costs that are reported above are calculated in a cost report which determines total inpatient and outpatient charges and establishes the amount of dollars that have been received from medicare for both inpatient and outpatient patients and procedures

Form 990 Schedule H, Part VI - Supplemental Information, Line 1

Part III, Line 9b For those clients who are known to qualify for charity care or financial assistance, the appropriate discount of fees is applied at the time of service. Additionally, payment arrangements are able to be entered into based on income and individual circumstances. These payment arrangements are approved by the chief financial officer/business officer manager. Payment Arrangements exist to recognize the ability of the patient to pay, as well as pay respect to the fact that, in fairness to paying clients, it must make every reasonable and customary effort to collect for services provided. By doing so, the center can remain a viable organization and continue to provide the needed services to the communities it serves.

Form 990 Schedule H, Part VI - Supplemental Information, Line 2

Part VI, Line 2 Surveys are used to establish the needs of each of the four counties that the organization serves These surveys are promoted through radio and newspaper venues, as well as through multimedia outlets such as the company website and the social network, facebook these client satisfaction surveys are used to meet the needs and concerns of these clients The website and facebook are used to encourage the public to make comments or ask questions pertinent to the mental health field the organization attends local health fairs to educate the public about mental health and to speak with the public about health concerns the organization also presents at local venues such as schools to actively interchange information and concerns with the public it serves free mental health screenings are periodically offered at various sites in the community at at homes upon request in order to develop a more rounded picture of the general mental health of the community it serves The mental health screenings are also available on the organization's website the organization also regularly works with each of 11 local school districts, local hospitals, doctors offices, goverment faciliites, businesses, libraries, health facilities, and law enforcement facilities to gather mental health information about the community and the individuals who reside in it

Form 990 Schedule H, Part VI - Supplemental Information, Line 3

Part VI, Line 3 Clients or responsible parties are informed of their financial responsibility upon admission, or as soon as practical by the discharge date Clients are encouraged to complete a financial assistance application as well as an application for Medicaid when applicable -- these clients are assisted by Four County associates as much as possible those who are not insured and/or who meet poverty guidelines are informed of the charity care policy that is in place at four county mental health center If the client falls below the 200% Federal Poverty Guideline, he or she is offered a full fee discount for services provided by the inpatient unit The client must provide information that substantiates his or her household does not possess sufficient liquid assets to meet his or her financial obligation in order to qualify for reduced rates at Four county counseling center
