description: an unrestricted gift received from a 501(c)(5) organization

Pt II Line 17a: The Joseph H. Hill Memorial Foundation, Inc. (Hill) was formed in 1959 to support the commercial cut flower production and marketing research needs of members of its sister organization, Roses, Inc., as well as the floriculture industry in general. Hill has a Board of Governors, the members of which represent different segments of the floriculture industry-cut flower growers, greenhouse suppliers, importers, and service firms. This body reviews and approves research projects for funding submitted by universities worldwide. On a quarterly basis, Hill solicits contributions from former members of Roses Inc. through direct mail (Note as of June 30, 2010, Roses Inc. ceased office operations. Former members are being encouraged to make contributions to Hill.). In addition Hill provides a quarterly newsletter to the industry which includes progress reports on research funded and a contribution form. The newsletter is mailed to cut flower growers, greenhouse suppliers, wholesale organizations, and service firms. A web site is also provided to the industry and general public. Hill's percentage of public support is 20.55%. Thus Hill is not publically supported Under the 33 1/3% support test. However, Hill's public support is 10% or more of its total support; it is attempting to attract additional public support and it has a broad, representative governing body. Thus Hill should qualify for public charity status under the facts and circumstances test of IRC Sec. 170(b)(1)(A)(vi).

From 990-EZ, page 2, part III, Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Each year, written requests are received for funding of research grants by the Foundation from various educational and research organizations related to the rose and flower industries. Applications are then reviewed by the research committee on the basis of validity and usefulness of projects applying for the funding. Decisions made as to which project should be funded are then passed along to the board of directors. The board makes the final decision on funding.
