|                                        |                                                | PART X, FIN 48 FOOTNOTE During the fiscal year ended June 30, 2010, ACI adopted the authoritative guidance issued by the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) that clarifies the accounting for uncertainty in income taxes recognized in an entity's financial statements and prescribes a recognition threshold of more-likely-than-not to be sustained upon examination. Measurement of the tax uncertainty occurs if the recognition threshold has not been met. This guidance also addresses derecognition, classification, interest and penalties, disclosure, and transition. The implementation of this guidance had no impact on ACI's financial statements. ACI's information returns for years subsequent to fiscal 2006 are open, by statute, for review by authorities. ACI does not believe there are any material uncertain tax positions and, accordingly, has not recognized a liability for unrecognized tax benefits. No interest or penalties were accrued as of June 30, 2010, as a result of the adoption of this guidance. Prior to the adoption of the guidance, the ACI's policy was to recognize a liability for uncertain tax positions based on management's estimate of whether it was probable that a liability was incurred and that amount could be reasonably estimated. |

| Form 990,Part VI,Section B, line11  |                  | Awana submits the Forms 990 to the Board of Directors prior to the filing of the form 990. Although neither the approval nor review of Form 990 is required under Federal law, Awana and Awana International Forms 990 shall be submitted to each member of the respective board of directors via email or US mail at least 10 days before the Forms 990 are filed with the IRS.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| Form 990,Part VI,Section B, line12c |                  | Annually employees and board of directors complete surveys regarding any potential conflicts. Surveys are maintained by the legal/risk management department. Any potential conflict of interest is reported to employee's supervisor and, in the case of board members, to the board of directors by the CFO.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| Form 990,Part VI,Section B, line15  |                  | All compensation is evaluated annually through analysis of independent benchmarking data obtained from national salary surveys such as Abbott-Langer, Watson Wyatt, and the U.S. Department of Labor. A formal salary structure with defined pay grades is examined and adjusted annually. Evaluation of executive compensation also includes analysis of pay in comparable not-for-profit organizations obtained from Form 990s. Executive compensation is reviewed and approved annually by an independent Board of Directors. Decisions are documented in Board Meeting minutes. Internal control documents related to compensation decisions for all employees are maintained by the Human Resources Department.                 |
| Form 990,Part VI,Section C, line19  |                  | 1 Awana will fully comply with Federal public disclosure requirements with respect to Forms 990, 990-T, 1023 and 5227. We will fulfill all requests for the forms made in writing or in person. Any such requests should be directed to the CFO. 2 Awana will fully comply with ECFA's Standards to provide a copy of our current audited financial statements upon written request. Any requests should be directed to the CFO. 3 Awana will make its conflict of interest policy available upon request. Any such requests should be directed to the CFO. 4 Awana will make its governing documents which are on file with the Secretary of State available upon written request. Any such requests should be directed to the CFO. |
