Lieberman Center for Health and Rehabilitation is a skilled care nursing residence (accepting Medicaid, Medicare and Private Pay) offering a full spectrum of care for the community’s most frail elderly including long-term skilled nursing, Alzheimer’s Special Care Unit, short-term rehabilitation, and hospice/end of life care. In the past year, Lieberman provided person-focused skilled nursing care to more than 300 elderly residents (average age 89) while also providing many socialization and life enrichment opportunities. Most notable are its range of award-winning creative art therapies that focus on building personal connections and improving communication skills. Lieberman has extremely high staff to client ratios compared to other (nationally-ranked) nursing home facilities. 1 8 (CNA/patients), 1 5 48 (Professional Nurse/patients), 1 48 (Social Worker/patients). Lieberman’s Haag Pavilion for short-term rehabilitation provided a 7-day/week therapy program to almost 450 individuals recovering from an acute illness, injury or exacerbation of a disease. At an average stay of 3 weeks, Haag Pavilion exceeds the goal of returning patients (with increasing medical complexity due to their more advanced age) to their prior level of functioning before the illness or injury. Lieberman closely monitors its outcomes through a variety of measures to ensure that it meets or exceeds the regional and national averages of re-hospitalization rates, improved functional abilities, falls data, house acquired pressure ulcers, etc.

CJE SeniorLife offers over 40 different programs and services, many of which are provided through community-based services to alleviate the difficulties that may arise when someone chooses to “age in place.” Personal CareCJE provides over 140,000 hours of home-based personal care services to almost 800 low-income seniors through a subsidized program administered by the Illinois Department on Aging. These services include assistance with bathing, grooming, dressing, running errands, light housekeeping, meal preparation, and respite care. Without these services, many individuals would need to enter a residential facility. TransportationCJE has 19 buses, one of the largest private transportation fleets outside of a local bus system, that provide over 50,000 rides annually to almost 1,000 older adults. Many of our riders have mental and/or physical disabilities with limited English-language skills and would otherwise be homebound. The majority of riders are older than age 75, approximately 30% live below the poverty level, and approximately 70% live alone. A new low-cost Medicare service is available for more individualized trips on-demand to grocery stores, physicians, and activities that reduce isolation. Home Delivered MealsThrough Title III subsidy programs, CJE provides 119,000 hot home delivered kosher meals at no cost to older adults who are unable to shop and/or prepare food. All meals provide for calorie controlled, diabetic, low fat and low salt diets. Adult Day ServicesAt three locations, CJE’s Adult Day Services provide 220 older adults with a safe, supervised, structured program in a group setting. Our program maximizes the potential of each participant, helping him or her maintain functional abilities and quality of life while giving their caregivers a much-needed respite. Participants, 60 or older, come from all ethnic, religious and cultural backgrounds. In addition, the award-winning and unique Culture Bus Program, where participants visit cultural destinations throughout Chicago, is designed to provide socialization and stimulation to people with early stage memory loss due to Alzheimer’s disease or other forms of dementia. A sister program includes an “inside program” on alternate weeks to engage participants in therapeutic artistic expression in an environment that fosters meaningful social peer interactions. Consumer AssistanceCJE SeniorLife’s Entry and Resource Center Specialists provide assistance, information and referrals on a variety of health and welfare issues impacting older adults, ages 60 and over. Each year - at no cost to the client - they respond to over 10,000 inquiries by phone or through walk-in appointments. Bi-lingual staff (English, Russian, Yiddish) advocate on behalf of clients to ensure that they receive the government and social service benefits and services to which they are entitled. Approximately 30% of CJE’s clients use more than one service that CJE provides. Center for Healthy LivingCJE’s Center for Healthy Living helps almost 5,000 older adults fully engage with life by improving their mind, spirit and body through low or no-cost educational seminars, expressive arts workshops, fitness programs and preventive health screenings.

(Code) (Expenses $ 9,477,015 including grants of $) (Revenue $ 8,790,710)

In a year, The Weinberg Community for Senior Living is home to almost 220 older adults at either Gidwitz Place for Assisted Living or The Friend Center for Alzheimer’s Care, one of the first and largest assisted living residences in the state. The Weinberg Community is a safe, yet stimulating environment for older adults who need additional assistance with everyday tasks like medication reminders, bathing or housekeeping. Residents also have many opportunities to participate in socialization and life enrichment activities. Through primarily for a private pay population, approximately 30% of residents receive some type of financial assistance through a CJE-sponsored scholarship program, donor funds or state government subsidy. Assisted living communities bridge the gap between living independently at home and placement in a skilled nursing facility. A recent assessment at Gidwitz indicated that residents are requiring more assistance due to their increased age (average 85) and their vast medical needs. To address the needs of the frailer, more medically-complex resident, CJE established the Gidwitz Plus program help residents “age in place” at Gidwitz instead of moving to a nursing home before it is necessary. The average length of stay at Weinberg is 3 3 years compared to the national average of 2 2 years.

Part X	Description of Uncertain Tax Positions Under FIN 48	CJE files a Form 990 (Return of Organization Exempt From Income Tax). When this return is filed, it is highly certain that some positions taken would be sustained upon examination by the taxing authorities, while others are subject to uncertainty about the merits of the positions taken or the amount of the position that would ultimately be sustained. The benefit of a tax position is recognized in the consolidated financial statements in the period during which, based on all available evidence, management believes that it is more likely than not that the position will be sustained upon examination, including the resolution of appeals or litigation processes, if any. As of and during the years ended June 30, 2010 and 2009, there were no unrecognized tax benefits identified and recorded as liabilities.
