Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 6		Sigma Theta Tau International has a membership and does not discriminate. Candidates are qualified for membership so long as eligibility requirements are met. Student candidates shall have demonstrated superior academic achievement, academic integrity and professional leadership potential. Members may be students in basic programs, students in graduate programs, nurse leaders, or honorary members. Members may be designated as honorary, active or inactive. Members may also formally request to discontinue membership. Active members pay annual chapter and international fees. Honorary members are designated as active without payment of fees. Inactive members have not paid annual chapter and international fees, but shall become active at any time by paying current renewal fees.
Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 7a		The election of the board takes place at the House of Delegates held at the Biennial Convention conducted every odd-numbered year. Each chapter may cast two votes through appointed delegates. In addition to chapter delegates, special delegates consisting of the board, past presidents, chairs of standing committees, and the regional coordinators each cast one vote in the election. A quorum consisting of 3 officer members of the board, 4 non-officer members of the board, and representation from three-fourths of chapters must be met in order to hold the election. Details about the elections can be found in Article IX "Elections" of the 2007-2009 Bylaws.
Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 7b		Delegates of the organization are given the authority to amend the society's bylaws, with or without notice from the board of directors. The board-approved direction of the organization and related initiatives are presented to and accepted by the society's delegates in the form of reports and resolutions.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11		The Form 990 will be reviewed by the Corporate Audit and Accountability Committee.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c		Each member of STTI's Board and committees shall strive to avoid any conflict between his or her own respective individual interests and the interests of STTI in each action taken on behalf of STTI. If any such person stands to derive personal gain or benefit from a transaction with STTI or has any direct or indirect interest in or relationship with any individual or organization which may be seen as competing with the interests or concerns of STTI, or proposes to render or employ services, personal or otherwise to STTI or to employ any member of its board, committee, or staff, or proposes to enter into any financial transaction with STTI, such person shall give immediate notice of such interest or relationship to the Board of STTI and shall refrain from voting or otherwise attempting to affect any decision for STTI to participate or not to participate in such transaction and the manner or terms of such participation. Once the Board of Directors is notified of a potential or actual conflict of interest, the Board may determine that the person may continue his or her STTI duties or activities, subject to appropriate limitations with regard to the conflict matter.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15		The CEO's salary is determined by the Board of Directors. They consider information gathered from like Non-Profit businesses of comparable size and scope. All other key employee salaries are determined by the Human Resources Department. Updated salary survey information is gathered from a variety of non-profit businesses similar in location, size, and job responsibility. Each position has a job description containing major responsibilities of the position, education and experience required, and scope of the position which is all approved by the CEO. Each position is placed in a level (1-6) which is correlated to a salary band. Using that information along with the salary survey information, an appropriate salary is determined.
Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19		Available upon request. Bylaws and Annual Reports are posted on the website.
Form 990, part xi, line 2c		RFP Process is done every 3 years and independent accountant is selected by Corporate Audit and Accountability Committee. Corporate Audit and Accountability Committee reviews the audit before it is presented to the board.
