Also complete this part to provide any additional information.

Part XII, Line 2d and Part XIII, Line 2d: Subcontractors' program income and cash match

1. The first step in the process is to identify the problem or goal. This involves understanding the current situation and what needs to be achieved.

2. Once the problem is identified, the next step is to gather information. This can be done through research, interviews, or data analysis.

3. After gathering information, the next step is to analyze the data. This involves looking for patterns, trends, and insights that can help inform the decision-making process.

4. The next step is to develop a plan or strategy. This involves determining the best course of action to achieve the goal, taking into account the available resources and potential risks.

5. Once a plan is developed, the next step is to implement it. This involves putting the plan into action and monitoring progress along the way.

6. Finally, the last step is to evaluate the results. This involves assessing the outcomes of the process and determining whether the goal has been achieved.

Part VI, Section B, Line 11a:

The 990 is reviewed by the Board Audit Committee. The Committee makes a report to the Board of Directors.

Part VI, Section B, Line 12c:

All contractors are required to submit a list of their directors and key employees as part of their Request for Proposal.

The proposals are reviewed by the Board Planning Committee. If any person connected with the Agency is a member of a subcontractors organization, they are required to resign from one position or the other.

Part VI, Section B, Line 15:

The Board Compensation Committee recommends the compensation amounts for all employees to the whole Board of Directors. The Board of Directors approves or disapproves these recommendations. The Agency has a Board approved salary schedule in the personnel policies that sets starting ranges for all positions, including the Executive Director.

Part VI, Section C, Line 19:

The Agency immediately complies with any request for any of this information. The Agency also has a website where this information could be included in the future.
