The organization's purpose is to provide educational services to children with hearing loss birth to early elementary years, and their families. Children with hearing loss are taught to talk and experience success in their lives both in school and in the world at large. The focus of the curriculum is in accelerating development of the spoken language and, when the children are ready, to help them learn the same subjects as their hearing age-mates so they can catch up and be full participants in the mainstream. The consistent instruction, combined with high expectations and standards, results in high achievement for the students.
