Part X	Description of Uncertain Tax Positions Under FIN 48	The School has adopted the accounting standard for uncertainty in income taxes, which addresses the determination of whether tax benefits claimed or expected to be claimed on a tax return should be recorded in the financial statements. Under this guidance, the School may recognize the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more-likely-than-not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by taxing authorities, based on the technical merits of the position. The tax benefits recognized in the financial statements from such a position are measured based on the largest benefit that has a greater than 50% likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement. The guidance on accounting for uncertainty in income taxes also addresses de-recognition, classification, interest and penalties on income taxes, and accounting in interim periods. As of June 30, 2010 and 2009, there are no material unrecognized/derecognized tax benefits or tax penalties or interest. With few exceptions, the School is no longer subject to U.S. federal, state and local income tax examinations by tax authorities for years ending before June 30, 2007.
