SchJ_P01_S00_L04	Schedule J, Part I, Line 4	The following officers, key employees or highest compensated employees participated in a supplemental executive retirement plan (SERP): James Gabriel and Dale McArdle. James Gabriel became vested in and received a distribution of contributions made (and previously reported) in prior years in the amount of $179,924. Dale McArdle received taxable cash payments in lieu of SERP contributions in the amount of $8,496. James Gabriel had contributions made to his SERP account in the amount of $16,911. Harold Smith, the former secretary of the filing organization and the executive director of the parent organization, retired and received a supplemental retirement benefit in the amount of $250,000 in recognition of his 35 years of service to the organization. All dollar amounts described above also are set forth on Schedule J, Part II to the extent required by the Form 990 instructions. Under current law, interests under the SERP are reportable as taxable compensation when they become vested, even if those amounts are not yet payable to the participant (and even if those amounts are never paid to the participant). No rollover or other tax-deferral options are available to participants. Participants' interests under the SERP are not guaranteed or secured in any way and at all times are subject to claims of the employer's bankruptcy creditors. In the manner described by IRS rules, the design of the SERP was approved as reasonable, in advance, by an independent compensation committee, which based its decision on data provided by an independent compensation consultant.
