Supplemental Information	Part III	Part II Column B Basic life insurance in excess of $50,000 that is provided to an individual by the company is reported in Column B-iii. T. Perl vested in and received distributions of deferred compensation from a 457(f) plan. The vested amounts are reported in Column B-iii. Part II Column C The company made contributions to the 457(f) plan account of M. Lampner, M. Perl and T. Perl, which have not yet vested. These contributions are reported in Column C. M. Lampner accrued benefits under a 457(f) plan. Total benefits that may be payable under the plan are based upon his length of service and compensation. The benefits have not yet vested. The benefits accrued during the reporting year are reported in Column C. Notes regarding 457(f) Plans The interests under the arrangements described above are/were subject to forfeiture if the participant voluntarily terminates/had voluntarily terminated employment prior to his or her applicable vesting date under each arrangement. In addition, under current law, interests under those arrangements are reportable as taxable compensation when they become vested, even if those amounts are not yet payable to the participant (and even if those amounts are never paid to the participant). No rollover or other tax-deferral options are available to participants. Participants' interests under these arrangements are not guaranteed or secured in any way and at all times are subject to the claims of the employers' bankruptcy creditors. In the manner required by applicable IRS rules, the design of each of these arrangements was approved as reasonable, in advance, by an independent compensation committee, which based its decision on data provided by an independent compensation consultant. Part II Column D The company provides basic life insurance and long term disability to all full time employees. Both benefits are reported in Column D. The company's contribution towards the employee's company-provided health insurance is reported in Column D. The company's contributions to an individual's 403(b) retirement plan account are reported in Column D. The company provides employees with 15 or more years of service, other than A. Bussone, M. Lampner, M. Perl or T. Perl, long term care insurance at no charge to the employee. This benefit is reported in Column D. (Bussone, Lampner, Perl and Perl must pay for their own coverage.) Part II Column F Note that this amount, although included in the amounts described above, has already been reported as compensation on prior years' Form 990s, and therefore (as required by the instructions) is double-reported here.
