Part III, Line 4		Several years ago, the Carroll Community College foundation received 171 donated pieces of artwork. The related organization has decided to showcase several of the paintings in various locations around the campus, as well as use them as teaching tools in the art department. The foundation also has a doll collection which consists of approximately 100 dolls from various countries, purchased by the donor while traveling to the various countries over a period of twenty years. These dolls are housed in the College board room.
Part V, Line 4	Description of Intended Use of Endowment Funds	The Foundation's endowments consist of 70 funds established to support a variety of scholarships at Carroll Community College.

		Part X, Line 2. On July 1, 2009, the Foundation adopted the Financial Accounting Standards Board's new accounting requirements for accounting for uncertain tax positions. Under these new requirements, a tax position that meets the more-likely-than-not recognition threshold is initially and subsequently measured as the largest amount of tax benefit that has a greater than 50 percent likelihood of being realized upon settlement with a taxing authority that has full knowledge of all relevant information. The Foundation determined that it was not required to record a liability for unrecognized tax benefits as a result of implementing the new requirements. Returns for the fiscal years 2007 through 2009 remain subject to examination by federal and state tax jurisdictions.
