Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Part V, Line 4	Description of Intended Use of Endowment Funds	The School has adopted investment and spending policies for endowment assets that attempt to provide a predictable stream of funding to programs supported by its endowment and to reduce the likelihood of real principal erosion due to portfolio volatility Staff $ 2,912,720 Scholarships 2,691,512 Specially designated 998,958 Historic awards 69,133 Total $ 6,672,323
Part X	Description of Uncertain Tax Positions Under FIN 48	The School is generally exempt from federal income taxes under the provisions of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code However, the School is subject to income taxes on unrelated business income as defined by the Internal Revenue Service During the year ended June 30, 2010, the School had no taxable unrelated business income and accordingly, no provision for income taxes is required in the accompanying financial statements When tax returns are filed, it is highly certain that some positions taken would be sustained upon examination by the taxing authorities, while others are subject to uncertainty about the merits of the position taken or the amount of the position that would be ultimately sustained The benefit of a tax position is recognized in the financial statements in the period during which, based on all available evidence, management believes it is more likely than not that the position will be sustained upon examination, including the resolution of appeals or litigation processes, if any Tax positions taken are not offset or aggregated with other positions Tax positions that meet the more-likely-than-not recognition threshold are measured as the largest amount of tax benefit that is more than 50% likely of being realized upon settlement with the applicable taxing authority The portion of the benefits associated with tax positions taken that exceeds the amount measured as described above would be reflected as a liability for unrecognized tax benefits in the accompanying balance sheet along with any associated interest and penalties that would be payable to the taxing authorities upon examination Interest and penalties associated with unrecognized tax benefits are classified as additional income taxes in the statement of activities The School files income tax returns in the U S federal jurisdiction As of June 30, 2010, there were no material unrecognized/derecognized tax benefits or tax penalties or interest With few exceptions, the School is no longer subject to U S federal income tax examinations by tax authorities for years before 2007
