Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 6		The Institute shall consist of individual professional, industry, associate, intermediate, student, retired members, members emeritus, distinguished members, and lifetime members. Firms or corporations are not eligible for membership. Professional Members. Professional members shall be technically experienced individuals whose primary function is to author, interpret, or enforce construction documents. Applicants shall have had not less than two years of experience in such work at the time of their application. Professional members shall be eligible to vote and to hold any office in the Institute. Industry Members. Industry members shall be technically experienced individuals whose primary function is to use and/or comply with construction documents in the normal course of their work to construct projects. Applicants shall have had not less than two years of experience in such work at the time of their application. Industry members shall be eligible to vote and to hold any office in the Institute. Associate Members. Associate members shall be those individuals whose primary function is to provide service, support and assistance to the construction industry. Applicants shall have had not less than two years of experience in such work at the time of their application. Associate members shall be eligible to vote and to hold any office in the Institute. Intermediate Members. Intermediate members shall be individuals who are prospective professional, industry or associate members, but who lack the proper technical qualifications or the required experience for the respective full membership classification, and who are interested in the improvement of construction specifications, who are engaged in such specific work functions as established by the Board. If eligible, intermediate members may petition for professional, industry or associate membership at any time, however, intermediate status shall be terminated on or before the end of the third year after election as an intermediate member. Intermediate members shall have all the rights and privileges of professional, industry or associate members, except that they shall not be eligible to vote nor to hold elective office in the Institute. Student Members. Student members shall be full-time students enrolled in an undergraduate or graduate program in a construction industry curriculum in an educational institution. Student members shall have all the rights and privileges of intermediate members. Retired Members. Retired members shall be professional, industry or associate members who are no longer engaged in income-producing activities, have reached the age of sixty-five years, have been members in good standing in the Institute for the past consecutive five years and who have been recommended for such change in status by their chapters, or if unaffiliated with a chapter, by documented application to the Secretary of the Institute. Retired members shall have the rights and privileges of professional, industry or associate members in accordance with the classification held at the time of application for change in status. Exceptions to above can be requested by an individual (if unaffiliated) or a chapter by documented application to the Secretary of the Institute to be evaluated on a case-by-case basis. Members Emeritus. Members emeritus shall be professional, industry or associate members who have been members in good standing in the Institute for the past consecutive fifteen years, have reached the age of seventy years, and have been recommended for such change in status by their chapters, or if unaffiliated with a chapter, by documented application to the Secretary of the Institute. Members so qualified may, upon approval of their application by the Institute, be granted the status of member emeritus. Members emeritus shall have the rights and privileges of a professional, industry or associate member in accordance with the classification held at the time of application for change in status, and shall be entitled to print and otherwise use, as a suffix to their name, the title Member Emeritus following the initials CSI, or FCSI if a Fellow of the Institute. Lifetime Members. Lifetime members shall be former Presidents of the Institute and shall automatically become qualified upon completion of their term of office as President. Lifetime members shall have the rights and privileges in accordance with these Bylaws and shall be entitled to print or otherwise use, as suffix to their name, the title Lifetime Member following the initials CSI, or FCSI, if a Fellow of the Institute.

Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 7a		One member from each geographical region shall be elected to the Board in accordance with the Bylaws. In addition, two Directors at Large shall be elected to the Board. The Institute Nominating Committee shall consist of seven members, one from each of five regions for a two-year term, two appointed one year and three the following year, in rotation among the regions and two Board members, appointed for one-year terms. Not later than November 1 of the administrative year in which the term of the Director expires the following June 30, the Region Nominating Committee shall submit nominees for Director. Not more than four qualified members of that region may be submitted as nominees for Director. The Secretary shall validate the names submitted by the Region Nominating Committees as the nominees to appear on the election ballot for the office of Director of that particular region. In the event that a Region Nominating Committee should fail to act by the stipulated time, the Institute Nominating Committee shall select the names of not more than four qualified nominees from that region to be placed on the election ballot. Nominations of Officers, except President, and Directors at Large, shall be made by the Nominating Committee and may be made by written petition of voting members. Each nominating petition must be submitted to the Secretary, on the prescribed form, sent by trackable delivery service, and be received at the Institute office during the month of December. Each nomination shall be by separate petition, signed by not less than two percent (2%) of the voting members from each of four regions based upon the previous June 30 membership. Each petition shall be accompanied by full information required by the Board and by a signed statement from the proposed nominee, indicating a willingness to serve. A petition shall be considered valid if it complies with these Bylaws and contains the required information. The Nominating Committee shall make one or more nominations each for the office of President-elect, vice Presidents, Secretary or Treasurer, and Director at Large as their terms expire, and submit its nominations to the Secretary during the month of December. All nominees for officers and Directors at Large shall be voting members in good standing of the Institute. The Nominating Committee shall select candidates for Officers and Directors at Large to ensure that at least three of the eight are either Professional or Industry/Associate members.
