Part III Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Briefly describe the organization's mission

Founded on a tradition of honor and the pursuit of self-discovery, Episcopal High School engages students in a challenging college preparatory education. The School fosters empathy and responsibility for self and others through a commitment to spiritual inquiry and growth in a fully residential community. Students are encouraged to think creatively, work collaboratively, develop individual passions, and celebrate the talents of others. Sharing diverse life experiences, ideas, and values, students learn humility, resilience, and mutual respect. Through access to the educational and cultural resources of the nations capital, students are inspired to understand and embrace a changing world. Together, faculty, and students take initiative as informed citizens and environmental stewards.

Part III, Line 4		The School's collections are made up of art objects and other artifacts of historical and educational significance. Each item is documented for educational significance and activities verifying their existence and assessing their condition are performed periodically.
Part V , Line 4	Description of Intended Use of Endowment Funds	The overall financial objective is to provide financial support for the School's operations at a level consistent with maintaining or increasing the purchasing power over time. The School's policy is to appropriate 5% of the rolling three-year average of the June 30 endowment value to support operations.
Part X	Description of Uncertain Tax Positions Under FIN 48	According to the accounting standard for uncertainty in income taxes, for the period from the School's inception to June 30, 2010, no unrecognized tax provision or benefit existed. Deferred income taxes are provided using the liability method, whereby, deferred tax assets are recognized for deductible temporary differences and operating loss and tax credit carryforwards and deferred tax liabilities are recognized for taxable temporary differences. Temporary differences are the differences between the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and their tax bases. Deferred tax assets are reduced by a valuation allowance when, in the opinion of management, it is more likely than not that some portion or all of the deferred tax assets will not be realized. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are adjusted for the effects of the changes in tax laws and rates of the date of enactment. When tax returns are filed, it is highly certain that some positions taken would be sustained upon examination by the taxing authorities, while others are subject to uncertainty about the merits of the position taken or the amount of the position that would be ultimately sustained. The benefit of a tax position is recognized in the financial statements in the period during which, based on all available evidence, management believes it is more likely than not that the position of appeals or litigation processes, if any. Tax positions taken are not offset or aggregated with other positions. Tax positions that meet the more-likely-than-not recognition threshold are measured as the largest amount of tax benefit that is more than 50% likely of being realized upon settlement with the applicable taxing authority. The portion of the benefits associated with tax positions taken that exceeds the amount measured as described above would be reflected as a liability for unrecognized tax benefits in the accompanying balance sheet, along with any associated interest and penalties that would be payable to the taxing authorities upon examination.
