Part IV, Supplemental Information		Ferrum College representatives visited Virginia State Senators and delegates on February 3, 2010 in order to deliver letters from students concerning the Virginia Tuition Assistance Grant funding. This activity involved travel from Ferrum's campus to Richmond and an overnight stay for staff and volunteer students. In addition, the President of the College and the Assistant to the President for Government Relations met briefly with our federal representatives on February 2, 2010 to discuss funding for a biomass boiler. This visit had minimal expense because it was conducted during the downtime of the annual NAICU conference. Throughout the year, the President corresponds with state representatives via phone, email, and letters concerning grant applications and other proposals/issues that impact Ferrum College or the Ferrum community.
