Part IV Supplemental Information. Complete this part to provide the information required in Part I, line 2, and any other additional information

Clients are referred from homeless shelters or various other government organizations. An intake form is completed to determine qualification.

Homestretch serves homeless families with children, which is the primary eligibility qualification. Housing assistance is provided by paying rent or providing housing in homestead properties for up to two years until the family is self-sufficient. The intake process occurs as families graduate and additional housing is available. These are not grants, but assistance.

Part IV Supplemental Information

At any point in time, there are usually 70 families and 200 individuals being served with housing and counseling assistance.
