SchD_P10_S00_L00	Schedule D, Part X	Generally accepted accounting principles prescribes recognition thresholds an measurement attributes for the financial statement recognition and measurement of a tax position taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. Tax benefits will be recognized only if a tax postition is more-than-likely-than-not sustained in a tax examination, with a tax examination being presumed to occur. The amount recognized will be the largest amount of tax benefit that is greater than 50% likely being realized on examination. For tax postitions not meeting the more-than-likely-than-not test, no tax benefit will be recorded. Management has concluded that they are unaware of any tax benefits or liabilities to be recognized at June 30, 2010. The University would recognize interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits in interest and income tax expense, respectively. The University has no amounts accrued for interest or penalties for the year ended June 30, 2010. The University is no longer subject to examination by taxing authorities for the years before 2007. The University does not expect the total amount of unrecognized tax benefits to significantly change in the next 12 months.
