Piedmont Baptist College and Graduate School admits students of any race, sex, color, handicap, nationality, and ethnic origin to all rights, privileges, programs, and activities on regular or non-regular basis. Within the institution, the pastoral programs are limited to men because of the College's biblical convictions concerning the qualifications of the pastor.

See What Students Are Saying

"I have found that Piedmont is dedicated to preparing students to become effective communicators. We are encouraged to develop and demonstrate our speaking and writing skills as the faculty works to cultivate the unique abilities of each student." Dexter Kirby '07
