Region A Partnership for Children staff conduct separate program and financial monitoring of grantees. Programmatic monitoring consists of quarterly reports that provide data on outputs and outcomes. Annual visits to the grantee program sites are made to inspect program documentation, facilities, and discuss challenges and achievements. An annual program monitoring report is issued to the service provider.

Financial monitoring consists of monthly financial status reports outlining program expenditures. Annual visits to the program site are also made to inspect supporting documentation and contract compliance. Issues of insufficient documentation or non-compliance are addressed and an annual monitoring report is issued to the provider. Throughout the process the organization's Executive Director is kept apprised of any issues requiring immediate attention. A summary of the process, findings, and service provider accomplishments is provided to the board of directors.
