Part III, Line 4		The museum, as well as points about the campus grounds, contain both permanent and ongoing art exhibits and is open to University students and the public. Public school students and the local community often visit the museum and other parts of the campus where art is exhibited. The museum is an integral part of our pedagogy for students majoring in art, as well as all other students. The museum collection, and other art about the campus further supports the mission of the University by providing valuable exposure to the Arts for our students and working to preserve the Arts for future generations.
Part V, Line 4	Description of Intended Use of Endowment Funds	the endowment funds are established for a variety of educational purposes based on donor-imposed restrictions in the gift.
Part X	Description of Uncertain Tax Positions Under FIN 48	the university is exempt from federal and state income taxation under section 501(c)(3) of the internal revenue code. However, certain income unrelated to its exempt function is subject to income taxation. The university follows the FASB accounting standards codification topic on accounting for uncertainty in income taxes. This standard clarifies the accounting for uncertainty in income taxes recognized in an entity's financial statements by prescribing a recognition threshold and measurement attribute for the financial statement recognition and measurement of a tax position taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. The university's policy is to record a liability for any tax position taken that is beneficial to the university, including any related interest and penalties, when it is more likely than not the position taken by management with respect to a transaction or class of transactions will be overturned by a taxing authority upon examination. Management believes there are no such positions as of June 30, 2010 and, accordingly, no liability has been accrued.
