BYLAWS OF WESLEYAN COLLEGE

Adopted by Board of Trustees
March 7, 2008

ARTICLE I

Policy Statement and Charter Reference

Section 1. Charter and Purpose. Wesleyan College (referred to in this and the following articles as "the College") was chartered by the Legislature of the State of Georgia in 1836 for the avowed purpose of making possible for women a college education equal to any afforded men. It was authorized to grant degrees to its graduates identical to those granted by colleges for men. It became the first institution in the world chartered for this purpose.

The College was established through the efforts of Christian men and women, and has operated under the auspices of the United Methodist Church and its predecessors, with a particularly close relationship to the Methodist Conferences of Georgia and Florida. It has never been sectarian. We respect other traditions and remain committed to the Judeo-Christian ethic, believing that a firm grasp of enduring human values is basic to the Wesleyan way of learning, living, and serving.

ARTICLE II

Powers of Trustees

The Board of Trustees of the College shall have the power to manage the property and business of the College, and shall have the power to carry out any other functions which are permitted by the Articles of Incorporation, or these Bylaws, except insofar as such powers may be limited by law. These powers shall include, but shall not be limited to, the following:

1. Determine and periodically review the purposes and the mission of the College.
2. Establish, review and approve changes in the educational programs of the College, consistent with its mission.
3. Appoint or remove the President and other officers and administrative officials of the College in accordance with these Bylaws; provided, however, the power to appoint or remove administrative officials other than officers of the College may, in the discretion of the Board, be delegated to the President of the College.
4. Approve degrees in course and honorary degrees.
5. Establish annually the budget of the College (including tuitions and fees), which shall be submitted to the Board upon recommendation of the Finance Committee.
6. Authorize the construction of new buildings and major renovations of existing buildings.
7. Authorize the sale and purchase of land, buildings or major equipment for the use of the College.
8. Institute and promote major fund-raising efforts of the College.
9. Authorize officers or agents of the College to accept gifts for the College.
10. Authorize the incurring of debts by the College and securing thereof by mortgage and pledge of real and personal property, tangible and intangible.

ARTICLE III

The Board of Trustees

Section 1. Composition. The Board of Trustees shall consist of four classes of members: the Regular Trustees, the Alumnae Trustees, the Trustees Emeriti, and the Ex-Officio members

ARTICLE V

Indemnification and Interested Parties

Section 1. Indemnification.

(a) The College shall indemnify those persons whom it is entitled to indemnify under the Official Code of Georgia Annotated ("the Code") for those amounts authorized under the Code; provided, however, indemnification shall only be made upon compliance with the requirements of such statutory provisions and only in those circumstances in which indemnification is authorized under those provisions.

(b) The College may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of those persons for whom it is entitled to purchase and maintain insurance against any liability asserted against such persons and incurred by such persons in any capacity, or arising out of such persons' status as described in the Code, whether or not the College would have the power to indemnify such persons against such liability under the laws of the State of Georgia.

(c) The College may pay for or reimburse the reasonable expenses incurred by a Trustee, Officer, or member of a Committee who is a party to a proceeding by virtue of his or her service as a Trustee, Officer, or member of a Committee, in advance of a final disposition of the proceeding if the Trustee, Officer, or member of the Committee submits to the Secretary of the College a written request that complies with the requirements of such provisions set forth in the Code. The Secretary of the College shall promptly upon receipt of such a request for indemnification, advise the Board of Trustees in writing that such Trustee, Officer, or member of the Committee has requested indemnification, and the determination of the entitlement of such Trustee, Officer, or member of the Committee to indemnification shall be made within a reasonable time after the receipt of such written request by the Board of Trustees.

(d) The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by or granted pursuant to this Section shall, unless otherwise provided when authorized or ratified, and consistent with the requirements of the Code, continue as to a person who has ceased to be a Trustee, Officer, or member of a Committee and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors, and administrators of such a person.

Section 2. Conflicts of Interest.

(a) Fiduciary Responsibilities. Officers and members of the Board of Trustees and officers of the College serve in a fiduciary capacity and have an obligation to conduct all affairs of the College in a manner consistent with that responsibility. All decisions of the Board and Officers of the College shall be made solely on the basis of a desire to promote the best interest of the institution and its constituents.

(b) Conflicts of Interest. A Trustee shall be considered to have a conflict of interest if:

(1) such Trustee has existing or potential financial or other interests which impair or might reasonably appear to impair such Trustee's independent, unbiased judgment in the discharge of responsibilities to the College; or

(2) such Trustee is aware that a member of the Trustee's family or any organization in which such Trustee is an officer, director, employee, member, partner, trustee or controlling stockholder has such an existing or potential financial or other interest.

This policy is intended to apply primarily to the employment of relatives, favoritism toward relatives with regard to admissions, degrees, etc., and to financial conflicts involving the purchase of goods and services. However, any other interest which might reasonably impair a Trustee's unbiased judgment is also covered by this policy and must be disclosed as set forth below. For purposes of this policy, a relative includes a spouse, parents, siblings, children and grandchildren.

(c) Compliance. It is the duty of the Chair of the Board to see that these conflicts of interest requirements are followed.

(d) Disclosure. Not later than the February meeting of the Board, each Trustee shall complete an annual disclosure in the form adopted by the Board. In addition, all Trustees shall disclose fully at the earliest practicable time the precise nature of any conflict of interest that may arise thereafter. Such disclosure shall be in writing addressed to the Chair of the Board with copies to the Secretary and the Board attorney. No Trustees shall vote upon or participate in the consideration of any matter at a Board or committee meeting in which the Trustee has a conflict of interest. The minutes of such meetings shall reflect that disclosure was made and that the Trustee having a conflict of interest abstained from participation and voting. A Trustee who is uncertain as to the existence of a conflict of interest in any matter may request the Board to determine whether conflict exists, and the Board shall resolve the question.

(e) Requirements. Once a Trustee has disclosed a conflict of interest and has withdrawn from the deliberations pertaining to the matter, the Board may choose to contract with the Trustee, the Trustee's relative or an entity in which the Trustee has an interest, so long as the Board determines that it is in the best interest of the college to enter into such a contract.
