Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15		In 2006, the board of directors undertook a broad-based research effort to determine what constituted reasonable salaries for all agency positions. The results of this research were presented at a meeting of the full board and base salaries for each position were set based upon the reported data. A policy for determining maximum annual increases was also implemented at that time. All increases in salary must be approved by the full board, and no increase larger than the determined annual maximums are to be considered without written justification for those increases. As of this date, no increases larger than the set maximums have been presented to the board for consideration.
