Part I, Line 2 - Procedures for Monitoring the Use of Grant Funds

The Organization is assigned Refugee families by two organizations. The Office for Refugee Resettlements and the U.S. Committee for Refugees and Immigrants. Once the families are referred, each family is assigned a case manager. The case manager is required to perform 30, 60, & 90 day evaluations of each family to monitor their progress in finding work and adapting to their new surroundings. The case managers also make sure that the funds each family receives has been spent to acquire good living and work conditions.

Part IV - Additional Information

Refugees and their families are the target for assistance from this organization. Individuals that are referred to the organization are given food, clothing, furniture, and other household goods to get them started once they arrive here. Apartments are rented and rent is paid on their behalf by the organization. The Refugees do not receive cash until they have established a good track record of work and adapting, then they can qualify for employment bonuses. The organization also provides training to help Refugees adapt, such as teaching them the English language and other usefull skills to help them succeed.

The Financial Statements from which this return is prepared are audited by our independent accounting firm and reviewed by the officers and board of directors. An actual copy of the 990 is not reviewed by all board members. However, the Form 990 is prepared using the audited financial statements after the Board has reviewed them. The Executive Director and Controller receive and review the Form 990 prior to its filing.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c - Enforcement of Conflicts Policy

The organization requires all employees, contractors, agents, officers, and members of the Board of Directors to disclose in writing all business and family relationships that might potentially create a conflict of interest. No member of the Board of Directors may vote on any matter which may directly or indirectly result in financial gain to that member, or which may conflict with that member's obligations to another organization's board of directors, or to that member's employer. Violations of conflict of interest policies are reported to the Compliance Officer and/or Executive Director for follow-up and resolution and, if required corrective action and compliance.
