SchD_P02_S00_L05	Schedule D, Part II, Line 5	Travis County has a park ranger who patrols the 250 acres by going through the preserve a couple times a week. Additionally, as part of the conservation easement, our campus police department makes 3 checks of the west and south perimeter of the preserve each week. Since the preserve is not "public" and generally fenced in, they only look for intrusions through the fencing. All monitoring for the preserve must be done on foot since there are no roads nor are vehicles permitted in the preserve.
SchD_P02_S00_L09	Schedule D, Part II, Line 9	The easement is incorporated in the balance sheet in the Land and so it is not depreciated. Expenses related to the easement are incorporated in the normal financial statements and are not separately broken out or disclosed due to the immateriality of the amount.
SchD_P03_S00_L01	Schedule D, Part III, Line 1	The University's collections are made up of artifacts of historical significance that are held for educational, research and scientific curatorial purposes. The University's collections are not recognized as assets on the statements of financial position, and contributions of collections are not reflected in the statements of activities.
SchD_P03_S00_L04	Schedule D, Part III, Line 4	The University's collections are made up of artifacts of historical significance that are held for educational, research and scientific curatorial purposes. The University's collections are not recognized as assets on the statements of financial position, and contributions of collections are not reflected in the statements of activities.
SchD_P05_S00_L04	Schedule D, Part V, Line 4	The University's endowments consist of approximately 300 individual funds established for a variety of purposes. Over 92% of the earnings from endowments are used to provide scholarships to students attending Concordia. The other 8% in earnings are used for programmatic (educational) and other operational expenses.
SchD_P10_S00_L00	Schedule D, Part X	The Internal Revenue Service has determined that the University is exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. It is also exempt from state franchise taxes. However, any unrelated business income may be subject to taxation. In accordance with the accounting standard on Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes, the University addresses the determination of whether tax benefits claimed on a tax return should be recorded in the financial statements. Under this guidance, the University may recognize the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by taxing authorities, based on the technical merit of the position. Examples of tax positions include the tax-exempt status of the University and various positions related to the potential sources of unrelated business taxable income. There were no significant unrecognized tax benefits identified or recorded as liabilities during fiscal year 2010. Open tax years subject to examination by the U.S. and state taxing authorities are for the years 2007 to 2009, which statutes expire in 2010 to 2012, respectively.
