Part V, Line 4	Description of Intended Use of Endowment Funds	The Foundation holds assets (real estate and investments) on behalf of Eliada Homes. Eliada Homes intends to use the endowment funds in maintaining its current organizational programs, including residential treatment, foster care, child development and community based services, as well as in expanding those programs.
Part X	Description of Uncertain Tax Positions Under FIN 48	The Organization is exempt from income taxes as a not-for-profit corporation under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3), and has been further classified as an organization that is not a private foundation. Accordingly, the financial statements do not reflect a provision for income taxes. The Organization's tax returns are subject to examination by federal and state taxing authorities, generally for three years after they are filed. Effective July 1, 2009, the Organization implemented the accounting guidance for uncertainty in income taxes using the provisions of FASB ASC 740, Income Taxes. Using FASB ASC 740 guidance, tax positions initially need to be recognized in the financial statements when it is more-likely-than-not the position will be sustained upon examination by taxing authorities. Tax positions that are not deemed to meet the more-likely-than-not threshold are measured and evaluated by management for compliance with the threshold guidance in FASB ASC 740, and a liability is recorded to reverse the financial statement impact, if required. Any interest and penalties associated with a tax position would be recognized as a current liability in the Organization's financial statements.
