990 Part I, Line 1 & 990 Part II, Line 1

The mission of Women's Bean Project is to change women's lives by providing stepping stones to self-sufficiency through social enterprise. For twenty years Women's Bean Project has provided transitional employment to hundreds of women who are chronically unemployed and impoverished, teaching them the job readiness and life skills needed to get and keep permanent employment. While working in a gourmet food manufacturing business, women learn the work and interpersonal skills needed to function independently in the workplace and community. These tools empower women to create better lives for themselves and provide their families with hope. The business generates income to the organization and provides the foundation for providing the work experience the women are lacking.

The program Women's Bean Project focuses on helping women overcome barriers to employment by addressing three areas: Basic Skills, Life Skills and Job Readiness Skills. Immediately after intake, our focus is to facilitate each women's access to service to help her meet her basic needs, such as housing, transportation, child care and health care. Weekly life skills classes support growth and self confidence and personal responsibility and impart crucial tools needed for employment. Through work in or hands-on business, women learn the skills that employers say they are not getting in entry level applicants. Throughout the course of six to twelve months, program participants discover their capabilities and interests.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 15b - Compensation Review & Approval Process for Officers & Key Employees

The Project compiles data from the salary surveys for the CEO position in similar sized organizations from the Mountain States Employers Council and the Colorado Nonprofit Association. An executive committee made of board members meets and discusses the data and determines the salary.

Regarding staff compensation, the CEO and other senior staff use data from the salary surveys for each position in similar sized organizations from the Mountain States Employers' Council and the Colorado Nonprofit Association. Wages and salaries are set with the objective of meeting the 50th percentile of the salary survey data. Staff compensation is approved by the Board of Directors as a part of approving the annual budget.
