funds, which are held at the original gift amount in perpetuity. The first endowment fund does not have stipulations on the distributions of earnings and, accordingly, the distributions are unrestricted to the Foundation and can be used for general operating support or any needs of the Foundation. The second endowment fund does have stipulations on the earnings. Distributions of earnings from the second endowment fund are restricted to use for the A to Z Fund.

Part XIV Supplemental Information (continued)

Part X: Effective July 1, 2009 the Foundation adopted the Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes Topic of FASB ASC which requires the Foundation to determine whether a tax position (and the related tax benefit) is more likely than not to be sustained upon examination by the applicable taxing authority, based solely on the technical merits of the position. The tax benefit to be recognized is measured as the largest amount of benefit that is greater than fifty percent likely of being realized upon settlement, presuming that the tax position is examined by the appropriate taxing authority that has full knowledge of all relevant information. Based on its continued analysis, the Foundation has determined that the adoption of the standard does not have a material impact on its financial statements.
