General Information

The Phoenix CFA Society, founded in 1959, serves Arizona professionals engaged in the field of investment management and research. The membership consists of portfolio managers and security analysts, as well as economists, pension plan sponsors, educators, and other professionals involved in the investment field.

Benefits of Membership

Corporate Presentations: The Society regularly invites major corporations to make presentations to Society members. From September through May, members are given the opportunity to hear corporate executives discuss their corporations' strategies and financial results. Through a blend of formal presentations and informal discussion, members can assess Fortune 500 firms as well as publicly traded Arizona-based firms.

Professionalism: The Phoenix CFA Society promotes the highest professional standards in the industry. In cooperation with the CFA Institute, members have the opportunity to enhance their knowledge through participation in the CFA Institute Professional Development Program.

Educational Programs: The Society schedules several educational meetings each year. These meetings generally qualify for CFA Institute Professional Development credits for CFA Institute members. The Phoenix CFA Society board encourages its members to take advantage of the continuing education program and has one of the highest participation rates in the country.

Public Awareness: Annually, the Society advertises the names of the most recent CFA charter holders and conducts other awareness initiatives to increase recognition of the value of the CFA charter and the Phoenix CFA Society.

CFA Exam Study or Group Review Course

The Phoenix CFA Society conducts CFA study groups and review courses for Level I candidates each Spring for the CFA examination. The Society also arranges to offer candidates discounts on CFA study course packages and to grant scholarships to eligible CFA candidates.
