1 Briefly describe the organization's mission

We are a community of learners with a long and honored tradition of caring deeply about students and their education. Students are challenged to experiment with ideas, raise questions, critically examine alternatives, and make informed decisions. We encourage students to accept responsibility for their own learning, to discover and pursue their passions, and to act with responsibility. Our purposes are to prepare students to lead lives of learning, accomplishment, and service, and to help them develop skills and attributes critical for success in a rapidly changing world. We do this by offering distinctive academic programs that emphasize theory and practice and encourage active, experiential, collaborative, and cross-disciplinary learning. We work to pursue excellence while promoting inclusiveness and respect for differences.

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Part X	Part X FIN48 Footnote	Income tax status The College is exempt from federal income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, accordingly, no provision for income taxes is made in the financial statements. At July 1, 2007, the College applied Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Interpretation Number 48, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes, (FIN 48) an Interpretation of SFAS No. 109, Accounting for Income Taxes to all tax positions for which the statute of limitations remained open and determined there were no material unrecognized tax benefits as of that date. In addition, there have been no material changes in unrecognized benefits since July 1, 2007, nor was there a material effect during the current year nor is it expected that there will be a material change in the next 12 months.
Part V, Line 4	Part V, Line 4 Intended uses of the endowment fund	The intended use of endowment funds is to provide scholarships to students and support the activities of the College through distribution of earnings to the operating fund in a manner consistent with donor restrictions.
Part III, Line 4	Part III, Line 4 Description of organization's collections and how it furthers its purpose	The college received donations of collection and works of art. These collections further the college's exempt purpose by enhancing the educational experience for the students by using them for discussions and research in the classroom as well as for public exhibition.
