FORM 990, PART III -- The purpose of the Friends of Utah County Children's Justice Center is to foster and support the Utah County Children's Justice Center Program (CJC) through raising private and public funds in behalf of abused children in our community. The purpose of the CJC is to reduce trauma to victims of child abuse, particularly sexual and physical abuse, by coordinating and facilitating the criminal justice system response to these victims through a multidisciplinary team intervention in a safe, non-threatening, child-friendly facility known as the Children's Justice Center. This home-like facility and a much needed major addition to this facility are held in trust for the community by the Friends of Utah County Children's Justice Center non-profit organization. Additionally, we provide funding for CJC programs on behalf of abused children and their families to promote healing and restoration to productive lives, training for CJC MDT professionals, and medical services. We also provide public awareness and education regarding child abuse issues in our community and involve the community in being part of the solution to these issues, as part of our charitable purpose. We will continue to support the healing programs of the Children's Justice Center Program, as well as to periodically refurbish, maintain, equip, and refurbish the CJC facility, as part of our charitable purpose. We continue to receive significant non-cash contributions that provide much needed clothing, toys, books, etc. for child clients and families who are very needy during this time of crisis in their lives, in order to provide hope and healing in their young lives.

PART III, line 4d -- The $925.00 amount represents the small grants made this year for 5 professional members of the CJC multidisciplinary team to attend professional training in their respective professional disciplines, in order to improve their knowledge and skills for appropriate child abuse intervention services.

PART VI, Section A, line 2 -- Two of our current board officers, Alan Larson and Gale Larson, are related to each other as husband and wife. They serve independently as volunteer members of our non-profit board, and comply with our Conflict of Interest Policy.
