Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Part X	Description of Uncertain Tax Positions Under FIN 48	During the year ended June 30, 2010, the Company adopted newly applicable accounting principles in connection with income tax accruals and disclosures which prescribe a minimum probability threshold that a tax position must meet before a financial statement liability or benefit is recognized when tax positions are uncertain of being sustained. The tax cost or benefit to be recognized is measured as the largest amount of cost or benefit that is greater than fifty percent likely of being realized upon ultimate settlement. Adoption of these accounting principles had no effect on the consolidated financial statements of the Company.

Supplemental Information	Part III	Part I, line 3. The President/CEO of the organization is an employee of PRIDE Industries. The Compensation Committee of the PRIDE Industries Board of Directors retains ultimate authority over all elements of compensation to assure that the organizational purposes are appropriately being served. The Compensation Committee uses credible data sources, third party review and an objective "arms-length" decision-making process, ensuring the integrity of PRIDE's executive programs, and consistency with the organization's overall mission. Part I, Line 4a. Frederick Smith was paid a separation agreement payment during the year. The amount and terms of the agreement are subject to a confidentiality clause. Part I, Line 5. Commission payments are made to some salespeople based on a percentage of revenue earned over specific contract periods. Executive bonuses are discretionary at the approval of the Compensation Committee. Part II. The compensation reflected in this section represents the Form W-2 calendar year taxable income for these individuals. The compensation expense is paid by PRIDE Industries. The company distributes compensation expense reporting between PRIDE Industries and PRIDE Industries One, Inc. for management and operating purposes, including the Form 990, part IX.
