Part III, Line 4d - Other Program Services: Counseling Services provides a broad range of mental health and other supportive services to adults, children and families, including specialized support for people with disabilities and those dealing with bereavement.

Part VI, Section A Governing Body and Management

Line 11: Yes, Form 990 responses are formulated by staff and then reviewed by the board president, treasurer, and other board members as designated by the board president. The final Form 990 is provided to all board members before it is filed.

Section B, Policies: Line 12c: Does the organization regularly monitor and enforce compliance with the policy?

Yes, Board members and key employees are annually asked to disclose potential conflicts. They are also required to disclose any potential conflict at the time it arises at any point during the year.

Line 15 a: Executive Director compensation is determined annually by the Board's ED evaluation committee, comprised of the president, personnel committee chair, and VP or president elect. The committee receives data from the annual Northern California Compensation & Benefits Survey conducted by the Center of Non Profit Management, along with data from the annual ED compensation survey conducted by the Association of Jewish Family & Children's Agencies, covering agencies throughout the US and Canada. Based on its evaluation of the ED's performance, the agency budget, and the salary survey data, the committee makes its recommendation, then adopted by the board as part of its budget approval process.

Line 15 b: The ED and Director of HR & Operations, as well as Personnel Committee members review comparability data on an annual basis. The data is used by the ED in developing the agency's annual budget, which is approved by the board.

Section C, Disclosure

Line 19: How the organization makes its governing documents, conflict of interest policy, and financial statements available to the public?

Financial statements are available in the agency's annual report, in print and on the agency's website. Governing documents and conflict of interest policies are available to the public on request.
