Form 990, Part III, Line 1 - Organization Mission

To provide direct mental health services, psychotherapy, and counseling to homeless families in San Francisco, CA and in particular to children of such families, to provide referral services for such families and their children to other social service agencies, to coordinate the provision of such services through and with certain homeless family shelters in San Francisco and to provide educational and charitable services to the public as permitted by Section 214 of the California Revenue and Taxation Code.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 11 - Form 990 Review Process

A draft of the Form 990 is prepared by our external auditors. This then is reviewed by organizational staff including the Executive Director and any corrections are identified. Following this processes, a copy of the Form 990 is made available for the full board to review, and is discussed with the Board Treasurer and Board President. Once these steps have taken place, the Form 990 is finalized, signed, and submitted to the Internal Revenue Service.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c - Explanation of Monitoring and Enforcement of Conflicts

The organization requires an annual disclosure by the Board. If a conflict of interest is identified or exists, the board follows the conflict of interest policy in addressing the conflict, and determining the proper course of action. The organization is pro-active, and addresses conflict when they first arise rather than waiting until a year end reporting period to address them.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 15a - Compensation Review & Approval Process for CEO, Exec. Dir., or Top Mgtment

Compensation of the Executive Director is set by the independent members of the board of directors. While there has been no significant salary change in the recent past, to support a salary change the board would review comparable data, organizational and executive director performance and would document any such salary change and the rational for their decision in the board minutes.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 15b - Compensation Review & Approval Process for Officers & Key Employees

The Executive Director of the organization sets the compensation of other officers and key employees. The Executive Director is independent of such employees and sets their compensation based on the organizational budget and comparable compensation.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 19 - Other Organization Documents Publicly Available

Upon request a public disclosure package is made available to members of the public as required by both the IRS and the City and County of San Francisco's Nonprofit Sunshine Ordinance for organizations receiving city funding.
