Vista Del Mar's Community Based Services provide a broad spectrum of services for children, adolescents, young adults and families. The Agency, state-licensed and Council on Accreditation accredited, places more than 150 adopted children each year. Vista also evaluates, selects, and monitors qualified foster care parents for children up to 18 years of ages. Prevention and Early Intervention services are offered through our parent and teacher counseling and education programs at many Los Angeles and Santa Monica-Malibu Unified School District Schools, and teen parent support programs are provided at local high schools. The Agency's Home-SAFE Division provides child care and provider training for state-licensed family child care homes, in-home family services for families with young children who are at-risk for child abuse and neglect, Early Head Start programs, and School Readiness programs for children from 0 - 5 years of age. Intensive in-home services are provided via the Agency's Connections/Wraparound program, which builds upon a family's strengths and support systems, our Multidisciplinary Assessment Team, which assures that all children newly detained by the Department of Children & Family Services receive a comprehensive mental health and psychological assessment, and Children's System of Care, which provides strength based, family centered support to children with serious emotional problems.
