monitoring and enforcing compliance with conflict of interest policy	form 990, part vi, section b, question 12c	Regional Center of Orange County (RCOC) is subject to the California Code of Regulations, Title 17, conflict of interest regulations as well as its own conflict of interest policy. Conflict of interest statements are completed by all employees and Board members. Initially, employees complete a conflict of interest statement as part of the pre-employment verification process, and Board members complete a conflict of interest statement as part of their Board membership application forms. Conflict of interest statements are completed annually thereafter, or earlier, if the conflict of interest status changes. Any present or potential conflicts of interest are reviewed by RCOC's attorneys.

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
process of determining compensation	form 990, part vi, section b, line 15	The Regional Center of Orange County's (RCOC's) Board of Directors' Executive Committee is composed of officers, i.e., Chairperson, Vice Chairperson, Secretary, and Treasurer, none of whom have a conflict of interest with respect to the compensation arrangement. The Executive Committee is accountable for setting a reasonable compensation package for the Executive Director. Consistent with the organization's philosophy and principles, the Executive Committee develops the annual performance goals and criteria to be used in determining the compensation package for the Executive Director. Appropriate comparable compensation and benefit data is obtained from other Regional Centers and two other similar tax exempt organizations. The last comparability study for Executive Director compensation was performed in September 2007. No Executive Director compensation increases have been subsequently awarded. The written records include key deliberations of the committee, such as the terms of the arrangement, the names of the members present, a description of the comparable data utilized, etc. RCOC utilized comparability data obtained from other Regional Centers and two large, similarly situated non profit organizations in establishing the compensation package for its Executive Director. The organization is in the process of revising its policies and procedures with respect to setting the compensation packages of its key employees and officers with the intention of establishing a process that meets the rebuttable presumption of reasonableness.
