Form 990, Part VII, Schedule J Line 4A		Some of the organization's personnel listed on form 990 Part VII and Schedule J participate in a separation arrangement that provides for a portion of the employee's annual salary based on their position in the organization. For the senior executive level, the amount is based on years of service up to a maximum number of months. Unpaid severance under the separation agreements for current key employees were reported at their full value in a previous tax year. In the current year there were no increases attributable to the separation agreement for any persons listed on this return.

Supplemental Nonqualified Retirement Plan	Part I, Line 4B	Children's Hospital of Orange County (CHOC) established a nonqualified deferred compensation plan in 2002 in which certain individuals listed on the Form 990, Part VII and Schedule J are participants. Under the plan, a grantor trust was established for which CHOC is the grantor. The principal of the trust and any earnings thereon are held separate and apart from other funds of CHOC and are to be used exclusively for the uses and purposes of plan participants and CHOC's general creditors. The company established a capital accumulation account on its books for each plan participant for each election of benefits accrued under the plan. The capital accumulation account is utilized solely as a device for the measurement and determination of the amounts to be paid to the participants under the plan. The participant is a general unsecured creditor of the company for the payment of capital accumulation account benefits. CHOC contributed to the trust such money or other assets in the amounts and at the times determined in its sole discretion. The participant is entitled to his/her capital accumulation account benefit under the earliest of (1) remaining employed by the company to the deferred vesting for the account, (2) disability, (3) 24 months following involuntary separation from service without reasonable cause, or (4) following a voluntary separation from service if certain non-compete stipulations are met. In December 2008, the CHOC compensation committee dissolved this plan and all assets were disbursed involuntarily to the participants. The following individuals received payments from the dissolution of this supplemental non-qualified retirement plan during calendar year 2009: Kimberly C. Cripe ($159,223), Kerri Ruppert Schiller ($79,208), and Tanya Lieber ($38,058).
