What is the organization's primary exempt purpose? EDUCATION FOSTER PROFESSIONAL GROWTH
Describe what was achieved in carrying out the organization's exempt purposes. In a clear and concise manner, describe the services provided, the number of persons benefited, and other relevant information for each program title
28 Each year the organization solicits members from the ranks of all college admissions professionals in the New York State system. Approximately 400 persons belong to the organization. Dues at this time are $40 per year. Funds collected provide general operating revenue to the organization. The SUNYCAP organization conducts a conference each year for its entire membership. Approximately 230 persons attended this past year. Its location moves around the state to enable convenient attendance by all professionals in the field. At this conference each constituent unit has meetings to follow up on earlier activities, nationally known speakers are provided, seminars and panel discussions are provided, and round-table activities are also held. Awards for excellence in service, for outstanding new professionals, and for exceptional service to the organization are given. Timely and important issues are discussed and methods, practices, and procedures are shared. Fees are charged for the conference, which pay honoraria and expenses for speakers, meals, and other activities. (Grants $ 0) If this amount includes foreign grants, check here . . . ☒		28a	28,417
29 Operation Inform - Each year the SUNYCAP organization conducts a series of informational seminars about the SUNY system for the guidance counselors in New York State. Each year six to nine programs are conducted in varying locations throughout the state. During these seminars information is given about the academic opportunities within the SUNY system, varying criteria for admission to the different units, as well as on topics of interest to counselors, parents and students who are going through the college exploration process. The colleges and universities who participate in each program are charged a fee. This fee provides the funds for food, speakers, postage, and materials. In a typical year approximately 51 universities participate. Over 1,000 guidance counselors typically attend. This is the most significant activity the organization conducts, with approximately $11,000 in fees generated yearly. The monies collected are all expended on Operation Inform activities.
