The organization had more than 250 classroom teachers attend the professional workshops to provide lessons to teach children about music and the arts and also created a curriculum and standards-based lesson plans to support classroom learning. Twenty orchestra concerts were also performed with audiences of almost 25,000.

Classics for Kids, Inc. was created in order to provide classical music programs for children. The organization believes that exposure to classical music programs will enable children to enjoy and appreciate classical music. Classics for Kids, Inc. provides program services for all schools in San Diego.
