Part V, Line 4	Description of Intended Use of Endowment Funds	The interest from the endowment funds is used to cover program expenses or salary expenses for directors and research chairs. The endowment fund principal and temporarily restricted uses of its investment income consist of research programs, research chairs, clinic operations, clinic research and graduate education.
Part X	Description of Uncertain Tax Positions Under FIN 48	On September 1, 2009, the Institute adopted the accounting standard on accounting for uncertainty in income taxes, which addresses the determination of whether tax benefits claimed or expected to be claimed on a tax return should be recorded in the financial statements. Under this guidance, the Institute may recognize the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by taxing authorities, based on the technical merits of the position. Examples of tax positions include the tax-exempt status of the Institute, and various positions related to the potential sources of unrelated business taxable income (UBIT). The tax benefits recognized in the financial statements from such a position are measured based on the largest benefit that has a greater than 50 percent likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement. There were no unrecognized tax benefits identified or recorded as liabilities at August 31, 2010.
