Generations Health Care Initiatives, Inc.
990 PF, Part IX - A

1. Health Care Access Office - Increases access to health care for the uninsured and under-insured by enrolling them in existing health coverage and pharmaceutical assistance programs. The staff screens individuals for eligibility, assists in completing the applications, and provides advocacy throughout the enrollment process. Individuals are referred to community resources if other services are needed. $ 734,646
2. ShareCare - A community-wide sliding payment program that allows those who are uninsured to pay a reduced rate for health care services based on their income. Local health care providers agree to accept the reduced rate after individuals are determined eligible by the Health Care Access Office. Participants receive a ShareCare card that entitles them reduced fees up to 100% from participating providers. The program operates in the Duluth MN/Superior WI area. 7,329
3. HealthShare - A community-based health coverage program designed to provide access to health care to those working in small businesses who are uninsured. HealthShare utilizes a multi-share model of funding from employers, employees, community and public funding to provide coverage at an affordable rate for small businesses. The Minnesota Legislature authorized and provided funding for HealthShare as a demonstration project in four counties of northeastern Minnesota. On July 1, 2008, a newly formed corporation, HealthShare, Inc., assumed operation of the program, however Generations Health Care Initiatives continues to manage the program. The program officially began enrolling members in the Duluth MN area during October 2008. 292,157
4. SHIP - Generations managed a State Health Improvement Grant for the Carlton-Cook-Lake-St. Louis Community Health Board. The purpose of the SHIP grant is to work on projects to improve the health of specific communities in a 7 county area, working in the schools to prevent obesity and smoking. 287,591
5. CHIPRA Grant - Generations received a two year grant from the Health Research Services Administration to work in the Duluth area to reduce the number of uninsured children in the Duluth, MN area. A full time Generations social worker works in the community especially with the schools to access families with children who are uninsured and helps them enroll in available programs 75,025
6. Other - Program development activities, including a program to improve healthcare access for children by working closely with the schools, a dental program for children and other activities 3,888
