The 990 is reviewed by the audit committee and then recommended to the board for their approval.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c - Enforcement of Conflicts Policy

At the bottom of each board agenda there is a notification to the board members indicating that if they have a conflict of interest on the agenda they should contact the Board President. At the beginning of every board meeting, they discuss the agenda to see if anyone has a conflict of interest. If an interested person exists, they may make a presentation at the governing board or committee meeting, but after the presentation, he/she shall leave the meeting during the discussion of, and the vote on, the transaction or arrangement involving the possible conflict. The chairperson of the governing board or committee shall, if appropriate, appoint a disinterested person or committee to investigate alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement. After exercising due diligence, the governing board or committee shall determine whether the Organization can obtain with reasonable efforts a more advantageous transaction or arrangement from a person or entity that would not give rise to a conflict of interest. If a more advantageous transaction or arrangement is not reasonably possible under circumstances not producing a conflict of interest, the governing board or committee shall determine by a majority vote of the disinterested directors whether the transaction or arrangement is in the Organization's best interest, for its own benefit, and whether it is fair and reasonable. In conformity with the above determination it shall make its decision as to whether to enter into the transaction or arrangement. If the governing board or committee has reasonable cause to believe a member has failed to disclose actual or possible conflicts of interest, it shall inform the member of the basis for such belief and afford the member an opportunity to explain the alleged failure to disclose. If, after hearing the member's response and after making further investigation as warranted by the circumstances, the governing board or committee determines the member has failed to disclose an actual or possible conflict of interest, it shall take appropriate disciplinary and corrective action.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 15a - Compensation Process for Top Official
The Grand Island Education Foundation Board reviews the compensation of the executive director on an annual basis. A market analysis of executive salaries for other fundraising organizations is compiled for both the immediate area and the state of Nebraska. Upon review of this analysis and review of the director's performance, the Foundation Board recommends and approves compensation.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 19 - Governing Documents Disclosure Explanation
Form 990 and other governing documents are made available to the public upon request. Grand Island Education Foundation is also a member of the Guidestar organization, which is a massive database of 990's.
