GOVERNANCE, MANAGEMENT AND DISCLOSURE	PART VI, SECTION B, LINE 15A AND 15B	The process whereby compensation is determined for all Lone Star Conference employees begins with the collection of comparability data. This includes a listing of salaries and benefits for employees in similar positions (e.g., athletic directors, compliance directors, media relations directors, marketing directors, interns) at member schools. It also includes a listing of salaries and benefits for employees in matching positions (e.g., commissioners, assistant commissioners, interns) at other NCAA Division II athletic conference offices. For the Commissioners position, the comparable data is provided to the Commissioners Evaluation Committee, which is comprised of the Chair, Vice Chair and Past Chair of the Council of Presidents. That group performs an evaluation of the Commissioner and documents such, then asking the Commissioner to sign the evaluation during an in-person meeting with the Chair. The committee, at annual June meeting for the Council of Presidents, provides the Council with a report on their evaluation and recommends the Commissioners salary. The Council has ultimate authority in setting the salary. The Commissioner also provides the Council with a listing of self-identified goals for the upcoming year, with the Council approving such goals and then using them as part of the evaluation process for the next year. For the remaining staff positions, comparable data is utilized by the Commissioner in evaluating and recommending salaries. The Commissioner performs evaluations of each employee prior to the annual June meeting for the Council of Presidents, documenting such and compiling a summary report for each employee that is presented to the Council. The Commissioner shares details of each employees performance and recommends the salary for each position, with the Council of Presidents having ultimate authority in setting salaries. Each staff member also provides the Commissioner with a listing of self-identified goals for the upcoming year, with the Commissioner approving such goals and then using them as part of the evaluation process for the next year. All documentation for the Commissioners evaluation and goals is placed in a personnel file that is held in confidence by the current Chair and passed forward annually to each new Chair. Documentation for remaining staff positions is placed in a personnel file for each employee that is held in confidence by the Commissioner. Actions of the Council regarding staff evaluations and salary approvals are recorded in the meeting minutes.
