Facts And Circumstances Test
The organization was fortunate enough to receive two large grants from two different private foundations over the last five years. These private foundations are substantial contributors and the organization's public support percentage has dropped below 33.33% as a result. The organization maintains a continuous fund-raising effort and strives to attract new and additional public support. The organization's board of directors is comprised of individuals with diverse backgrounds and interests. None of those board members is affiliated in any way with the two private foundations that made the large grants.
