Part X	Description of Uncertain Tax Positions Under FIN 48	FIN 48 Footnote from Caritas Christi's audited financial statements - On October 1, 2007, Caritas Christi adopted ASC 740-10, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes - an Interpretation of FASB Statement No. 109. ASC 740-10 prescribes a recognition threshold and measurement attribute for the financial statement recognition and measurement of a tax position taken, or expected to be taken, in a tax return. This interpretation also provides guidance on derecognition, classification, interest and penalties, accounting in interim periods, and disclosure requirements for uncertain tax positions. The adoption of ASC 740-10 did not have a material impact on Caritas Christi's consolidated financial statements.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11		The organization prepares the Form 990 and the related disclosures with assistance and guidance from its individual tax advisors (CPA firm) The Form 990 is reviewed by the individual entities' and the parent organizations' management teams prior to submission to the board of directors and the IRS

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c		The organization requires that key employees, members and officers of the board of directors and any member of any committee disclose in writing (and update annually) all business and other relationships which might potentially create a conflict of interest as defined by the policy. The written disclosure shall include an itemization of any substantive conflict of interest for such individual by virtue of his or her activities. The conflict of interest policy is reviewed and communicated to ensure individuals with outside relationships do not inappropriately participate in business decisions of the Organization in which they are not independent. The conflict of interest policy and procedures are currently under review and revision.

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15		All compensation for the CEO and senior executives throughout the system are governed and overseen by the Board of Directors of Caritas Christi, their sole member. The Board established a Compensation Committee, made up of disinterested trustees, who are given the authority to establish compensation for all senior executives. The Compensation Committee performs annual reviews and approves executive compensation. In order to assist the Committee in its responsibilities, the Compensation Committee hires independent, outside compensation consultants to advise the committee on the reasonableness of the overall executive compensation. The Committee works with these consultants to ensure that all compensation is reasonable, meets all regulatory requirements, and is competitive within the relevant market.
