Conflict of Interest Policy

This Conflict of interest Policy governs the activities of the board and staff of Western Connecticut Area Agency on Aging, Inc. Questions about the policy should be directed to Christina Fishbein, Executive Director, Bermer Ridenhour, Chair of the Board or Loretta Reed HIPAA Privacy and Security Officer. It is the duty of all board members and staff to be aware of this policy, and to identify conflicts of interest and situations that may result in the appearance of a conflict and to disclose those situations/conflicts/or potential conflicts to (i) the employee's supervisor (ii) the executive director, (iii) the Chair of the Board or (iv) the HIPAA Privacy and Security officer, or other designated person, as appropriate. This policy provides guidelines for identifying conflicts, disclosing conflicts and procedures to be followed to assist Western Connecticut Area Agency on Aging, Inc. manage conflicts of interest and situations that may result in the appearance of a conflict.

I. What is a conflict of interest? A conflict of interest arises when a board member or staff member has a personal interest that conflicts with the interests of Western Connecticut Area Agency on Aging, Inc. or in situations where a board/staff member has divided loyalties (also known as a "duality of interest"). The former can result in situations that result in inappropriate financial gain to persons in authority at Western Connecticut Area Agency on Aging, Inc. which can lead to financial penalties and violations of IRS regulations. Similarly, situations or transactions arising out of a conflict of interest can result in either inappropriate financial gain or the appearance of a lack of integrity in Western Connecticut Area Agency on Aging, Inc. decision-making process. Both results are damaging to Western Connecticut Area Agency on Aging, Inc. and are to be avoided.

- Example # 1: A director, officer, employee, or volunteer, including a board member (or family of any of the foregoing) is a party to a contract, or involved in a transaction with Western Connecticut Area Agency on Aging, Inc. for goods or services.
- Example #2: A director, officer, employee, or volunteer, (or family member of any of the foregoing) has a material financial interest in a transaction between Western Connecticut Area Agency on Aging, Inc. and an entity in which the director, officer, agent, partner, associate, employee, trustee, personal representative, receiver, guardian, custodian, or legal representative.
- Example#3. A director, officer, employee or volunteer, (or a family member of the foregoing) is engaged in some capacity or has a material financial interest in a business or enterprise that competes with the Western Connecticut Area Agency on Aging, Inc.

Part VI, Line 12C

2. Who might be affected by this policy? Typically persons who are affected by a conflict of interest policy are the Organization's board members, officers, and staff. In some cases a major donor could also be in a conflict situation. Western Connecticut Area Agency on Aging, Inc. takes a broad view of conflicts and board/staff are urged to think of how a situation/transaction would appear to outside parties when identifying conflicts or possible conflicts of interest.

3. Disclosure of Conflicts. Board members and staff will annually disclose and promptly update any disclosures previously made to Christina Fishbein, executive Director on an Annual Conflict Disclosure form provided by the Organization that requests them to identify their interests that could give rise to conflicts of interest, such as a list of family members, substantial business or investment holdings, and other transactions or affiliations with businesses and other organizations or affiliations with businesses and other organizations or those of family members as well as other nonprofit organizations.

Board and staff are also urged to disclose conflicts as they arise as well as to disclose those situations that are evolving and therefore may result in a conflict of interest. Advance disclosure must occur so that a determination may be made as to the appropriate plan of action to manage the conflict. Staff should disclose to their supervisor/Executive Director and board members should disclose to the board/Chairperson of the board as soon as the person with the conflict is aware of the conflict/potential conflict or appearance of a conflict exists.

4. Procedures to manage conflicts. For each interest disclosed, the full board, or the Executive Director or the Chairperson of the board, as appropriate, will determine whether the organization should: (a) take no action or (b) disclose the situation more broadly and invite discussion/resolution by the full board of what action to take. In most cases the broadest disclosure possible is advisable so that decision-makers can make informed decisions that are in the best interests of the organization.

- When the conflict involves a decision-maker, the person with the conflict ("interested party"): (i) must fully disclose the conflict to all other decision makers; (ii) may not be involved in the decision of what action to take (e.g., may not participate in a vote) but may serve as a resource to provide other decision makers with needed information.
- In some cases the person with the conflict may be asked to recuse him/herself from sensitive discussions so as not to unduly influence the discussion of the conflict.

Part VI, Line 12C

- In all cases, decisions involving a conflict will be made only to disinterested persons.
- The fact that a conflict was managed and the outcome will be documented in the minutes of board meetings if the conflict was related to a board member, and reported by the Executive Director to the board/Chair of the board/other appropriate committee of the board (e.g., Executive committee) if the conflict was related to a staff member.
- The Chairperson of the Board/Executive Director will monitor proposed or ongoing transactions of the organization (e.g., contracts with vendors and collaborations with third parties) for conflicts of interest and disclose them to the Board and staff, as appropriate, whether discovered before or after the transaction has occurred.
