Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15a		The Board of Directors has established a Human Resources Committee whose terms of reference include providing assistance to the Board in the discharge of its fiduciary responsibilities relating to the fair and competitive compensation of the senior management and staff of the organization in connection with compensation, benefits and non-compensation incentives. The Committee: a) reviews the staff compensation philosophy and guidelines that support the Corporation's overall goals and objectives, and recommends amendments, if any, to the Board; b) receives periodic reports from the President or other ASF officers on the various components of the compensation and benefits package covering the staff of the Atlantic Salmon Federation, so that the Committee, on behalf of the Board, may satisfy itself that the Atlantic Salmon Federation's compensation package, taken as a whole, is fair and competitive, and contributes positively to the Atlantic Salmon Federation's ability to attract and retain a first class staff; c) may direct that a third party survey of compensation and benefits at comparable organizations and/or of comparable jobs is undertaken from time to time and shall have the power to engage independent advisors or consultants to assist the Committee in the discharge of its duties; d) provides recommendations to the Board regarding management succession; e) reviews and approves corporate goals and objectives relevant to the President's compensation, evaluates the President's performance in light of those goals and objectives, and has the authority to determine the President's compensation level based on this evaluation. The Human Resources Committee does not get involved in the remuneration or performance assessments of individual staff members other than the President and senior management. The Committee consults at least annually with the President and reviews recommendations from him with respect to compensation for members of the Corporation's senior management.
