Part III Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

1

Briefly describe the organization's mission

The Foundation is dedicated to advancing the quality of life of individuals and families affected by hemophilia or other blood disorders by providing a broad range of services and programs while supporting research to improve care and to find a cure

2

Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ?

Yes

☒

No

If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O

3

Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services?

Yes

☒

No

If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O

4

Describe the exempt purpose achievements for each of the organization's three largest program services by expenses

Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations and section 4947(a)(1) trusts are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported

4a

(Code) (Expenses $ 593,690 including grants of $ 354,437) (Revenue $)

Patient Care GLHF advances the comprehensive care for people with bleeding disorders through its support of an integrated regional network of hemophilia treatment centers through a grant from HRSA The design of the hemophilia treatment care network provides patients with access to multiple disciplines, each of which has specific expertise in bleeding disorder care The hemophilia model has been one of the most successfully managed public health programs in the United States The substantial socioeconomic benefits of comprehensive services for the hemophilia population are well documented and include increased employment, fewer days lost from work and school, decreased hospital in-patient-days, increased numbers of patients with third-party coverage, lower cost of care, and decreased health care resource utilization More importantly, studies indicate that persons receiving care through the hemophilia treatment center network have a 40% reduction in risk of death despite having more severe clinical symptoms compared to those receiving non-treatment-center care

4b

(Code) (Expenses $ 275,253 including grants of $ 235,981) (Revenue $)

Research GLHF supports the systematic coordinated assessment and recording of health outcomes of individuals with bleeding disorders in a national database through a grant from the CDC The database currently holds information on 25,108 individuals, including 78,388 clinic visits, and is the largest repository of hemophilia outcome data in the world This data provides critical information for the design of randomized clinical trials that are generating evidence-based approaches to the management of hemophilia care, identifies gaps in the evidence-based knowledge that underlies clinical practice, and serves as a valuable basis for framing clinical research questions with the goal of optimized quality of life for those affected by bleeding disorders

4c

(Code) (Expenses $ 144,326 including grants of $ 86,598) (Revenue $)

Public Education GLHF supports a comprehensive network of health professionals and patients & their families in providing public education about bleeding disorders Health care professionals- through the federal grant supported regional network - educate teachers, coaches, emergency room personnel, dentists and other individuals who provide support to individuals with bleeding disorders to ensure safe and healthy outcomes for their patients In addition, GLHF volunteers attend health fairs and other events to heighten the public's understanding of bleeding disorders and the symptoms to encourage women, in particular, to seek medical support for otherwise potentially undiagnosed conditions GLHF also supports a strong volunteer advocacy program which educates legislators and other public officials on the interests and challenges related to public policy issues

4d

Other program services (Describe in Schedule O) See also Additional Data for Description

(Expenses $ 260,858 including grants of $ 188,971) (Revenue $)
