Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c		Trustees, officers, employees and members of any committee with governing board delegated powers are covered by the policy and are required to disclose the existence of any financial interest which may be a conflict of interest. A person has a financial interest if the person is 1) an officer or director or employee of an organization which is applying for or receiving a grant from the Foundation, 2) has an ownership or investment interest of greater than 5% in any entity with which the Foundation has a transaction or arrangement, and/or 3) has a compensation arrangement with the Foundation or with any entity or individual with which the Foundation has a transaction or arrangement. Compensation includes direct and indirect remuneration as well as gifts or favors reasonably considered not insubstantial. The interested person is given the opportunity to disclose all material facts to the Trustees or members of committees considering the proposed transaction or arrangement. A conflict may be declared by the interested person without further action, or the Board or committee may make a determination after disclosure of the financial interest and all material facts. After any discussion with the interested person, he or she shall leave the meeting while the Board or committee discusses the matter and determine by majority vote of the disinterested Trustees or committee members whether a conflict of interest exists. If a conflict of interest is found to exist, 1) the Board or committee may appoint a disinterested person or committee to investigate the proposed transaction which involves a conflict of interest, or 2) the Board or committee shall determine, by majority vote, whether the transaction or arrangement is in the Foundation's best interest and whether to proceed or reject the proposal. During the discussion and vote on the matter, the interested person with the conflict of interest shall not be present. A voting member of the Board of Trustees or of any committee who received compensation directly or indirectly from the Foundation for services is precluded from voting on matters pertaining to that member's compensation. If the Board or committee has reasonable cause to believe a member has failed to disclose actual or possible conflicts of interest, it shall inform the member and afford the member an opportunity to explain the alleged failure to disclose. If, after hearing the member's response, the Board or committee determines that the member has failed to disclose as required, it shall take appropriate corrective action.

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15		The Compensation Guidelines assist the Board in fulfilling its responsibilities to achieve the Foundation's goals and objectives according to the Mission Statement and updated by the Strategic Plan. The allocation of financial and human resources is designed for that particular purpose and the Board recognizes that achieving the Mission requires attracting, retaining and rewarding skilled executives and personnel within appropriate guidelines established by good governance practices. The Board wishes to establish compensation incentives that are competitive in the marketplace and balanced between short and long-term performance designed to motivate and reward mission directed performance. The Executive Committee serves as the Compensation Committee. The responsibilities include: 1) Oversee implementation of the Board approved strategy of the Foundation 2) Conduct the President & CEO's annual performance review and salary adjustment 3) Periodically review compensation policies and procedures and make recommendations for adjustments 4) review and approve any employment contracts 5) review and approve severance pay for executives 6) Oversee plans for management development and succession 7) Retain and terminate, in its sole discretion, any compensation consultant. Compensation for senior executives must meet standards under IRS intermediate sanctions regulations as they apply to disqualified persons. This includes the President & CEO and other key employees. Compensation, for purposes of intermediate sanctions, includes all remuneration. Annually the full Board meets to establish the mission-oriented strategy for the coming year and approve the annual plan for allocating financial resources. The strategy will become the basis for establishing performance goals for the organization as a whole and for individuals. The Executive Committee establishes mission-oriented performance goals and overall compensation philosophy for the coming year based on the strategy and financial resources. The Board has determined that merit increases and bonuses are based on performance in achieving the Foundation's objectives to fulfill the mission and strategic plan. The Board has also set a goal that all employees, including executives, receive market competitive compensation including benefits. The President & CEO or designee evaluates each employee annually on the anniversary of the employee's date of hire and compensation is adjusted based on performance, the Board approved annual operating plan, and the market based salary point for that position. The President and CEO has parameters for total compensation paid to employees based on the Board approved annual operating plan and is required to inform the Executive Committee whenever compensation will exceed those parameters. The Executive Committee evaluates the President & CEO annually at the end of each fiscal year and determines the total compensation based on performance, achievement of goals and comparable compensation for like positions in similar organizations. To meet the reasonable standard of the IRS, the Foundation has identified a group of organizations most comparable to the Foundation in terms of revenues and their sources, scope of activities, mission, quality of staff they recruit and public prominence. The total compensation for the CEO's of these organizations is used to determine reasonableness.
