Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Part X	Description of Uncertain Tax Positions Under FIN 48	On October 1, 2009, CEPPS adopted the accounting standard for uncertainty in income taxes, which addresses the determination of whether tax benefits claimed or expected to be claimed on a tax return should be recorded in the financial statements. Under this guidance, CEPPS may recognize the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more-likely-than-not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by taxing authorities, based on the technical merits of the position. The tax benefits recognized in the financial statements from such a position are measured based on the largest benefit that has a greater than 50 percent likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement. The guidance on accounting for uncertainty in income taxes also addresses de-recognition, classification, interest and penalties on income taxes, and accounting in interim periods. Management evaluated CEPPS's tax positions and concluded that CEPPS has taken no uncertain tax positions that require adjustment to the financial statements to comply with the provisions of this guidance. Generally, CEPPS is no longer subject to income tax examinations by the U.S. federal, state or local tax authorities for years before 2006.
