Emergency Assistance Programs The Emergency program is directed towards helping economically disadvantaged individuals by providing them emergency assistance in moments when no other agency or institution can tend to their partial or total needs. This aid is made available with the urgency that the situation requires. When there is a sick or handicapped person in the families of low income resources who needs care and medical equipment, this can turn into a serious situation or problem. In many cases these families must suffer hardships, including humiliations just to cover their basic needs. In other occasions, they deprive themselves of these essentials in order to provide the materials and equipment necessary for a sick or disabled family members. We attend during the year 2581 participants (2581 Clients)
